

Figure 2. Relation of median concentrations of 5 constituents from samples collected from 1991-97 to percent forested land use in the drainage basin
 [Five of eight constituents studied for load analysis increase with a decrease in total developed land]